Modern Slavery Act 2015 – Supplier Declaration

We acknowledge and understand that 'Modern slavery' is the term used to encapsulate two offences under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 of the United Kingdom relating to slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour; and human trafficking.

In the context of those two offences:-

'slavery' means behaviour on the part of an offender as if he/she owns another person, which deprives that person of their freedom.

'servitude' means an obligation to provide services through coercion where the individual is obliged to live on another person's property and has no possibility of changing his or her living and working conditions. 'forced or compulsory labour' means coercion through direct threats of violence or more subtle forms of compulsion.

'human trafficking' occurs where a person arranges or facilitates the travel of another person with a view to that person being exploited.

In signing this acknowledgment we confirm that we have read and understood the above and having reviewed our working practices can confirm that we have no such activity within our organisation, and as far as we are aware our own supply chain is free from slavery and human trafficking.

Yours Faithfully

PP
